Sixty-third Annual Report
OF THE City of Rochester
NEW HAMPSHIRE

For the Year Ending December 31st
Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-four 1877

1877

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

by John Shaw, Mayor

Gentlemen of the City Council:

Our program for the coming year of 1954 will be much on the same order as last year's program. It will again be one of economy. I believe that we are under definite orders from the voters of the City to continue such a program. I also believe that this program should continue until such a time as we have obtained new taxing property to help us distribute our tax burden.

Last year, in my inaugural message, we based our administrative program on economy and retrenchment, and it is proper that a report be made to you and to the taxpayers of Rochester as to the final results of this program, and as to the present financial condition of the City.

Our objectives were three: (1) a tax reduction, (2) a reduction of the Funded Debt, and (3) the establishment of a pay-as-you-go policy as a bridge with which to reach the first two. Each one of these three objectives has been reached.

TAX RATE

Our tax rate was reduced from $50.20 to $46.60, a reduction of $3.60. This was done in the face of a loss in total valuations of nearly $50,000.

Rochester normally has had an increase of from $150,000 to $400,000 in new valuations each year, due to new building construction. This year, this additional revenue was lost to us. For the first time in the history of the City, the total valuations were less than the previous year. The loss of revenue this last year was somewhere between $8,000 and $12,000.

FUNDED DEBT

The General City Debt at the beginning of last year, 1953, was $254,146. It is now, as of January 1, 1954, $200,746. This is a reduction during the past year of $53,400.

The Water Debt at the beginning of last year, 1953, was $110,546.15. It is now, as of January 1, 1954, $106,292.15. This is a reduction during the past year of $4,254.

The new Sewer Fund has a debt of $20,041, and this is offset by an accounts receivable item due the City of $20,041.

The total reduction of the entire City's Funded Debt paid last year is $57,654.

PAY-AS-YOU-GO POLICY

Our pay-as-you-go policy was successful in every department. "Pay-as-you-go policy" is another way of saying that we shall not go into further debt, that we shall keep within our budgets, and that we shall make all capital expenditures out of current revenue. This was done. We not only met the budgets, but we ended the year with a substantial surplus.

THE BUDGET

This surplus in last year's budget was earned by good administration. It could not have been accomplished without the help and cooperation of the various City Departments. We have had this cooperation in all departments, with the exception of one.

There have been several misconceptions as to how the budget was reduced and the tax rate lowered. Allow me to explain a little.

The budget for 1952 was $971,000. Before starting to cut this budget back, we had to place on top of this figure, the following:

- $14,000 in automatic salary increases
- 5,000 in increased retirement, pension and insurance payments
- 8,000 in increased payments on the City's debt

These commitments totaled $27,000, and they were fixed and fast, and could neither have been avoided nor cut.

This additional $27,000 brought our beginning budget for 1953 to $998,000. We reduced this to a final 1953 figure of $915,000, or a final cut back of $83,000. This was hard and tedious work, and always with the idea in mind that we would not cut salaries or essential services.

FEDERAL AID

This year, the City of Rochester received $14,726.13 as Federal Aid to our schools. This amount has been placed in Revenue Surplus, and it is available for the use of our schools in the coming year. Not one cent has ever been used in the City Budget nor applied in any way to reduce the budget or to lower the taxes.

The County Tax was reduced approximately $10,000 from the previous year, but this saving was cancelled out, as far as the tax rate was concerned, by the loss in total valuations.

I have heard many explanations as to how the budget was cut and how these savings were made, but it is sufficient to say that the savings that we made were returned to the taxpayers in the form of lower taxes. They were not spent!

CITY SERVICES

It is my belief that all these savings were accomplished without any curtailment of the necessary or essential services, and only a slight or moderate curtailment of the so-called "extra services." Elimination of "free work" by the various City Departments was responsible for more than a considerable saving. It is hard to say "no" to worthwhile requests, but it is sometimes necessary.

We have replaced old equipment in some instances. We have kept our physical properties in adequate repair. Street surfacing was increased, and we have made several capital expenditures from current revenue.

NEW WATER SYSTEM

During the past year, we authorized the construction of a new Water System at a cost of $413,000. We have needed this addition for over twenty years. The one thing that made this construction possible now was the reduction of $140,000 in its overall costs by the changes in pipe specifications. This administration takes some pride in effecting this saving.

Barring unforeseen circumstances, this construction should be started almost immediately and should be finished by early summer.

We will endeavor to finance this project in such a manner that the costs shall be distributed over a long period of years, so that it can be installed and paid for without raising the water rates. To accomplish this, we shall have to extend the debt payments to thirty years. This extension and the use of what is called the "Constant Payment" plan will cost us considerably more in overall interest charges, but this is believed to be sound financing by competent financial authorities, especially on long life projects such as this one. The debt will run to less than half of the life of the project.

This new Water System, plus additions, is intended and designed to supply water needs for the next fifty or sixty years of the normal anticipated growth of our community. I might add that the Water Debt does not affect the tax rate, and the Water Division should be so run and operated as to show a considerable profit to the City each year.

Several very necessary changes in the operation of this Division are needed, and they will be brought up for your consideration later in the year through the Water Construction Committee.

NEW SCHOOL CLASSROOMS

Our school system is beginning to feel the need for more classrooms in the elementary grades. This need has been brought forcibly to my attention by the enrollment figures of grade one in the school census.

I shall ask the School Board to explore and report on this question as to whether our future needs can be filled by additions to the present school buildings, or whether the need is for a new building in a new locality. Also, the question of a complete renovation of one or two of our oldest schools should be considered and included in the same report.

As I have been advised that school construction runs between $15,000 and $20,000 per classroom, this will be a question of considerable size and merits your most careful deliberation.

NEW ARMORY

During the past year, we have voted and accepted the proposition of the National Guard for a new armory and vehicle building. The establishment and continuance of a National Guard Unit in Rochester is a distinct asset to our community.

NEW INDUSTRY

We have a desperate need for the establishment of a new industry in Rochester. It would solve so many of our present problems, as well as to furnish a pleasant outlook for the future.

Rochester has so many things to offer industry that it is surprising and disheartening that so little has been accomplished toward this end.

The Chamber of Commerce, who is promoting this endeavor, and the men who have headed this organization and worked so hard and conscientiously during the past three years have been severely handicapped by not having available in Rochester, industrial space that is ready for immediate occupancy and use. Available space is probably the crux of the whole problem.

CONCLUSION

To me, good municipal government is nothing but good taxation, and good taxation is taxation only to the lowest possible amount necessary for economical and efficient services.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

Roads and Streets
Water System
Bridges
Sewers
Parks and Playgrounds
Rubbish Collection

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council, Rochester, N. H.:

From the point of view of activity, 1954 was the biggest year in the history of the Public Works Department. Early in the year several hydrants were installed and a few were raised where they had been set too low. Later many services were installed and main extensions were laid in the Cooper development, Oak Street, Gonic, and in April the 10-inch main extension from Oak Street to Strafford Square on Washington Street was started. Before the end of May the Washington Street job was completed, several more services were installed and the Milton Road water extension was started. In the meantime work on the contract for the transmission line from the Reservoir to the City had been in progress and several times the City forces had to interrupt work on the Milton Road and other projects to perform work in connection with the transmission line that was not covered by the contract and occasionally to install new services in other parts of town as they were needed. Among other things, this work in connection with the transmission line included making a temporary hook-up at the Chlorinator to assure pure water while connections were made that necessitated by-passing the regular point of chlorination.

Work was well along on the Milton Road and progress more than satisfactory when Hurricanes Carol and Edna hit and for over a month all of the water construction and maintenance forces were busy assisting the regular highway crew and some temporary employees in clearing away and disposing of trees, limbs and stumps.

Early in October work was resumed on the Milton Road project and the work was completed and the line flushed November 5th. The rest of November and December saw the completion of the Berry Brook intake and several hundred feet of 18-inch pipe laid on the line to connect the new pipeline from the Reservoir through to existing mains on Main and Congress Streets.

During the winter and spring when no work on snow or sanding was needed, a few days each month were used for cutting bushes on various country roads. Likewise patching streets was done a few days each month and street cleaning in some degree was done increasingly as the streets became bare of snow.

In March and April, ditches were cut and the roadway widened on Lowell Street and two sections of Tibbetts Road were gravelled in preparation for tarring later in the year. At about this same time the snow fences were taken down and stored and drops and culverts opened to accommodate the spring run-off.

Nearly all of the employees of the department were on vacation during the week of July 4th and on their return, patching, grading and gravelling in preparation for tarring was resumed. Tarring started the first of August and was still in progress when Hurricane Carol struck August 31st. Several men with power saws were hired as fast as they could be reached and all Public Works employees were out opening up streets closed by fallen trees even before the winds had subsided. By midnight all main thoroughfares and most of the other streets in the City were opened up sufficiently to allow traffic to move.

The City is greatly indebted to the telephone and power crews who cooperated with City forces in cleaning up many areas. A 50-ton crane brought in by the telephone company lifted large trees that were lodged against houses and permitted their removal without further damage to the buildings in a small fraction of the time that would have been required by other means.

In about six weeks most of the work of removing hurricane debris was completed but at least a few men were kept on hurricane work most of the time until after the first of December.

Snow fences were again erected in mid-November and the first week in December brought the first snow that required plowing and snow removal. Storms later in the month required plowing, snow removal, salting and sanding during most of the last half of the month.

Many of the usual functions of the department were curtailed or eliminated by the unusual demands of hurricane work and the large amount of work in connection with the water construction projects, but all of the essential services of both the Highway and the Water Divisions were performed.

Again I wish to thank the Mayor and City Council, other members of the City Government and all employees of the Public Works Department for their cooperation and valued assistance in the work of the department during the past year.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS AND ENROLLMENTS

A study of school census reports and December enrollments for the last seven years reveals a significant and steady increase in the school population in Rochester.

The total enrollment in the five public elementary schools, Grades 1 to 6, has increased from 794 in 1948 to 1092 pupils in 1954. The enrollments in Grades 7 and 8 have increased from 300 to 307 and the enrollments in Grades 9 to 12 have decreased from 623 to 590.

The school census reports for this same period show an increase of 745 resident children of school age from 5 to 16 years of age. The reports indicate, over a period of years, that about two-thirds of the pupils in Rochester attend the public schools. The general increase in our school population is reflected in both the public and private schools in about the same ratio.

The school census report for 1949 lists a total of 1484 resident pupils under six years of age and 1708 for the same age group in 1954. The number of children of school age in Rochester has increased more than the birth rate due to the number of families moving into Rochester.

Five additional classrooms have been provided in the public elementary schools of Rochester since September 1948. At the present time we have seven teachers for 217 pupils in Grade 2 and five teachers for 177 pupils in Grade 3. It appears too that additional classrooms will be necessary for Grade 3 pupils in September 1955.

The lack of space in the five elementary schools has made the work in music, physical education, the school lunch program, and other special activities increasingly difficult since several of the rooms once used for these purposes have been made into regular classrooms. The need for additional classrooms will manifest itself at the high school level in about five years.

Mayor John Shaw has appointed special School Board Committees to study the various phases of the school housing problem in Rochester in order that an accurate report be available in organized form when needed.

Considerable renovation is needed in the five elementary school buildings at the present time.

The damage done to our schools during the hurricanes in September 1954 amounted to several thousand dollars. The repairs that required immediate attention were made.

A large section of the flat roof on the Maple Street School was blown away and considerable water damage was done to the paint and plaster. This building had been recently redecorated with fresh paint. The work of the several school janitors in this building during the storm saved the city a substantial sum for repairs. No time was lost in the Rochester schools due to the hurricanes.

A survey made in October 1954 lists 819 pupils, including 27 transfers, carried to school in the seven buses operated by the private contractors employed by the Rochester School Board. The report listed 4 kindergarten pupils, 702 in Grades 1-8, and 113 in high school, Grades 9-12. This count included 668 pupils attending the public schools and 151 enrolled in private schools. High School pupils are transported when space on the school buses permits.

An additional 60 passenger bus, operated by the Interstate Bus Lines, has done much to provide adequate transportation for school pupils. This improved service has also made it more convenient to equalize the enrollments and prevent congestion in certain classrooms.

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

Our schools provide an enriched program including music, art, physical education, athletics, vocational training, along with the usual academic subjects. It is our constant endeavor to place emphasis on the common learnings throughout the entire school system in order that pupils will learn to read well, to think and express themselves clearly and become good citizens.

Tests are given annually to ascertain satisfactory growth commensurate with individual abilities. Guidance tests are administered in Grade 9 to determine vocational aptitudes and abilities and the results discussed with the pupils during individual conferences.

I consider the satisfaction of worth-while accomplishment one of the greatest values in life. Parents, teachers, and pupils should cooperate in order that a program of hard work, study, and play may be planned for the maximum development of the individual pupil. It is unusual for industrious boys and girls to become delinquents. Indolence is a sign of poor morale and begets delinquency. A longer school day for high school pupils is being given serious consideration.

Pupils attending the Rochester schools have many opportunities. The pupils who take advantage of these opportunities are obtaining a good education. More cooperation is needed from parents to provide some incentive for worth-while effort by their children. Parents are encouraged to visit school and discuss the educational progress of their children with the teachers.

Due to regulations of the State Board of Education, requiring sessions on 180 school days, it is recommended that the Rochester Public Schools shall not close due to inclement weather. School days lost in case of extreme emergencies will be made up by extending the school year in June 1956.

Parents are expected to show good judgment on school attendance whenever unusual conditions may affect the health or safety of their children.

NO SCHOOL SIGNAL

Twenty-two upon the fire alarm will be the signal for no school. When sounded at 7:05 and 7:45 all schools will be closed for the day. When sounded at 11:15 pupils will be dismissed at the usual morning closing hour for the rest of the day. The same signals will be sounded at Gonic and East Rochester. Notification will also be broadcast from Station WWNH and Station WHEB at 7:15 and 7:45.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The contributions of local service clubs and interested citizens for the welfare of underprivileged children have been helpful. The various provisions for scholarships, awards, and other incentives for high scholarship and outstanding achievement are also appreciated. The Parent-Teacher Associations have been very active in the elementary schools. They have provided interesting programs for the discussion of school problems and raised considerable money for valuable projects.

CONCLUSION

Our schools will continue to grow in membership, service, and values. The need for educational opportunities and proper leadership for all youth creates many problems.

I wish to express my appreciation for the cooperation of school employees, city officials, parents and citizens. I also wish to thank the members of the Rochester School Board and the school principals for their loyal support.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. FRYE,
Superintendent of Schools.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

BY JOHN SHAW, MAYOR

City Hall Auditorium

January 5, 1955

Gentlemen of the City Council:

Municipal Administration is generally a compromise between what the public wants and demands and what they as taxpayers are willing and able to pay for.

There are many citizens who want new and added services and are willing to pay for them, but there are, in my belief, many more who cannot carry the burden of the increased taxes necessary to pay for such expansions.

The tax rate, the funded debt and total assessed valuation will give the answers very quickly about the affairs of any community.

My personal belief is that any city administrative policies should be operated in short cycles of expansion and retrenchment.

When any community's tax rate is too high and funded debt too large, there is only one answer and that is economy and retrenchment.

We have tried to carry out, in the past two years, the down part of the cycle called "retraction." I believe that at the time of my taking office that the general City debt was too great and the tax rate too high.

In the last two years, we have brought the debt down to a reasonable size and have lowered the tax rate considerably below the average State rate.

Our City economy is now in a position to either move forward or to rest at half cycle. Our pay-as-you-go policy can be modified in the coming year to purchase some new equipment. My own views, as far as the tax rate is concerned, are that it must and should be held to approximately last year's figure.

TAX RATE

Our tax rate was reduced the first term from $50.20 to $46.60—a reduction of $3.60 in the face of a loss in valuations of nearly $50,000. In the second term, there was a further reduction from $46.60 to $44.60—a reduction of $2.00 or a total of $5.60 in two terms. Our total valuations have only increased about $4,000 since the $50.20 rate so that we take some pride in pointing out that we did not use the old political trick of raising the valuations to make a cut in the tax rate.

I also believe that any tax rate in the vicinity of between $45.00 and $47.00 is an acceptable rate for Rochester.

THE BUDGET

The Budget has been reduced in each term approximately $85,000, and each year we have wound up with a considerable surplus from these Budgets.

The accomplishment of producing a surplus is not something of which we should be overly proud. It can indicate two things: one, that the business of the year was conducted in an economical fashion; or, two, that the Budget was too large in the first place.

THE CITY DEBT

The overall debt is divided into three groups: Water, Sewer fund and the general City debt.

The Water debt is entirely separate, payable from the Water receipts and does not affect the tax rate, but of course can affect the Water rates.

The Sewer fund debt is a separate debt used to finance sewer installations, and this is offset by an accounts receivable owed by individual taxpayers, guaranteed by liens on their property, and this debt does not affect either the tax rate or the Water rates.

The general City debt is the important debt as far as the City finances are concerned. Its size affects the credit of the City, the yearly budget and the tax rate.

The general City debt has been reduced from $254,146 and now stands at the very small amount of $149,916.

The Sewer fund debt is $18,000 and this is offset by payments due the City of the same amount.

WATER SYSTEM

The Water System debt is $650,000 and this includes the cost of our new Water System, our new City extensions and the old debt which amounted to well over $100,000. We have endeavored to finance this debt in such a manner that the cost will be distributed over a long period of years, so that we can pay for it without raising the Water rates. Our payments for the next thirty years will be "constant" and will amount to approximately $30,000 a year.

We have been paying in round figures about $22,000 out of the Water receipts each year for debt service. We have showed, after making this payment, a surplus of from $5,000 to $7,000. This, together with the anticipated increase in the amount of Water sales, combined with good management, should enable us to make our yearly Water debt payments without necessitating an increase in the Water rates.

It has been called to my attention that we have not only tripled the amount of available water supply and delivery but that also the quality of the water for drinking purposes has been tremendously improved.

It has also been suggested that due to the increased quantity in the system, the summer water temperature will be a great deal colder than formerly, and this makes for greater palatability.

One of the big reasons for installing our new Water System was our desire to have sufficient water to meet and supply the demands of any new industries that might come to Rochester.

It has been estimated that our new Water System will meet the demands of our expected normal growth many years beyond 1990. It should reach completion sometime this spring.

NEW INDUSTRY

Our community needs a new industry. It is quite vital to us if we are to maintain our economic health.

This need has been with us for several years, and we have not made up to this point any great progress toward filling the need.

Rochester is in a fair way of becoming a satellite or bedroom town for the industrial communities surrounding us, and this is not good for our future.

Something more must be done than is now being done.

CONCLUSION

Our program for the coming year will again be one of economy, and the holding as near as possible of our present tax rate.

To me, good municipal government is nothing but good taxation, and good taxation is taxation only to the lowest possible amount necessary for economical and efficient services.
